

Dear Participant:

You are receiving the attached notification as the result of a regulation passed by the Department of Labor (DOL) in October 2010. This participant fee disclosure regulation, referred to by the DOL as 404(a), requires plan sponsors of participant-directed ERISA plans to make specific disclosures about plan fees and investments to participants, beneficiaries and employees eligible but not yet participating in their retirement plan. The regulation requires this disclosure to be made on an annual basis.

No action is required on your part – this document is being sent to you for informational purposes only. You will receive an updated document on an annual basis.

To assist you with understanding the disclosure document, a reference guide titled: “Understanding your Retirement Plan and the Overview of Plan Investment Options and Fees” is available at the following address: www.prudential.com/404aUserGuide.

Please refer to Part IV of the attached document for information on who to call with questions.

WAYNE COUNTY DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PLAN 4
PLAN 764677
OVERVIEW OF PLAN INVESTMENT OPTIONS AND FEES
AS OF: January 31, 2016

As a participant in the above referenced plan, you have the right to direct how your contributions to the Plan will be invested. This overview of the Plan's investment options is an important starting point for helping you to evaluate which plan investments might be best for you. This document is for informational purposes only; no action is necessary.

Getting Started - As you review your investment choices, you should think about your lifetime income needs at retirement, your long-term investment goals, and tolerance for risk. It is important to understand that all investments carry some level of risk and most investments will fluctuate in value as market conditions change. Therefore you should consider the benefits of a well-balanced and diversified portfolio.

This document enables you to compare investment performance and investment-related expenses and fees for each of the Plan's investment options. Existing participants (those with an account in the retirement plan) can log into their accounts at www.prudential.com/online/retirement (eligible non-participants, or those who have not yet enrolled in the plan, can go to www.prudential.com/planinfo) for access to additional information about each investment option—including the most recent performance information—and a glossary of investment-related terms.

What you should know about investment performance - Investment performance is the investment's return to investors after expenses are deducted. This overview shows the average annual total return for each investment at 1, 5 and 10 year intervals or since the inception of the investment. For each investment with a variable return, the overview also provides a benchmark which enables you to compare the performance of the investment with a broad based securities market index. Broad based securities market indices may not always correlate well to an individual investment option. For example, an employer stock investment option is not diversified and is not managed to perform similarly to a benchmark, and therefore its performance should be expected to deviate from the benchmark performance. Performance for investment options that invest in a blend of both stocks and bonds (e.g. lifestyle funds or balanced funds) may also be expected to deviate from the benchmark performance. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance, but it may help you assess an investment's volatility over time.

What you should know about investment fees and expenses – As with any business, there are costs associated with operating all investment options. Investment options typically pay their operating expenses, including expenses for investment management and distribution fees, out of assets of the investment. To help you compare fees and expenses, the overview includes each investment's total annual operating expense expressed as a percentage of the investment's net assets, but also as a dollar cost for each $1,000 invested. Some investments have additional fees that may be charged directly to the investor, such as sales charges (load), purchase fees, redemption fees and exchange fees. These fees, if applicable, will be described in the column titled Additional Fees, Restrictions, and Notes.

The cumulative effect of investment fees and expenses can substantially reduce the return on investments and, therefore, your retirement savings. However, fees and expenses are only two of many factors to consider when deciding what investment is appropriate for you. For additional information concerning the long-term effect of fees and expenses, visit the U.S. Department of Labor's Web site at http://www.dol.gov/ebsa/publications/401k_employee.html.

Overview of the Disclosure Document - Part I of this overview includes those investment options with variable rates of return – investments that do not provide a specific rate of return for investors. Part II includes investment options with fixed rates of return – investments that provide a specific rate of return for investors. Part III includes annuity options and other guaranteed lifetime income options that have guaranteed benefit features that help ensure your retirement savings lasts a lifetime. Part IV explains who you can contact for questions and paper copies of investment-related information. Part V contains information about administrative or recordkeeping fees associated with your plan.

PART III: ANNUITY OPTIONS AND OTHER GUARANTEED LIFETIME INCOME OPTIONS

Your plan uses one or more investments offered through a group annuity contract that includes annuity features that may be available to you. Availability of these features may be subject to the terms of your plan and/or approval by your plan sponsor. Annuities are insurance contracts that allow you to receive a guaranteed stream of payments at regular intervals, usually beginning when you retire and lasting for your entire life. Other Guaranteed Lifetime Income Options include insurance contracts that allow you to receive a guaranteed minimum withdrawal benefit amount each year beginning when you lock in and lasting for the rest of your life. These investment products are issued by insurance companies. Guarantees of an insurance company are subject to its long-term financial strength and claims-paying ability. For more information regarding available annuity options, please refer to the contact information provided in Part IV of this document.

Options that Provide Guaranteed Income For Life
Name of Option	Objectives / Goals	Pricing Factors	Fees, Restrictions and Notes
Prudential Group Fixed Annuity Option	To provide a guaranteed stream of income for your life (or some other period of time as may be allowed by your Plan), based on your account balance allocated to the purchase of an annuity under this option.	The amount of the annuity benefit will be determined by (1) the amount applied to purchase the annuity, (2) the form of annuity elected, (3) the age of the annuitant (for a lifetime annuity), and (4) the annuity purchase rates in effect on the annuity purchase date.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you elect to purchase an annuity, the following administrative fees will be deducted from your account balance: 3% on the first $75,000, 1.5% on the remainder plus a flat amount of $850. • This option represents the fixed annuity option available under your Plan's group annuity contract.

PART IV: QUESTIONS AND COPIES

Self Directed Brokerage Product

Through the Self Directed Brokerage Account, you can invest up to 20% of your account in a broad range of investments within a brokerage window, as determined by your plan sponsor and described in your enrollment materials. You must have a minimum balance of $500 in your plan to utilize the Self Directed Brokerage Account. Your first transfer into this account must be at least $2,500. After your account is established, subsequent transfers must be at least $1,000. The balance in this account may not exceed 20% of your total plan balance.

It is important to note that investments available within the brokerage window are generally not governed by the same selection and monitoring processes applied to the designated investment alternatives made available by your plan. Further, trading fees, and other restrictions, generally apply to transactions within the brokerage window, and may vary by investment type. Any such fees will be deducted from your brokerage account. Refer to the fee schedule provided in your enrollment materials. Investment instructions for assets within the brokerage window can be placed online or by phone at the Prudential internet address or phone number listed in Part IV of this document. If a fee is applied for use of this account, it will be noted in Part V. Questions regarding fees, including any additional fees that might apply, and requirements or restrictions within the brokerage window may also be directed to Prudential using the information in Part IV of this document. You should inquire about such fees prior to purchasing or selling a particular investment.

Restrictions on Frequent Trading

If you make excessive transfers into and out of (or out of and into) the same investment fund, your ability to make investment transfers involving those funds may be restricted. “Excessive trading” is:

- One or more round-trip trades (transfers into and out of the same fund) within a 30-day period where each buy or sell in the transaction is more than $25,000; and
- The trading pattern did not result from automatic or system-driven transactions such as payroll contributions or loan repayments, re-mapping transactions, hardship withdrawals, regularly scheduled or periodic distributions, or periodic rebalancing through a systematic rebalancing program that is not initiated by the Plan.

Certain investment options may not be subject to these restrictions. Funds may also have their own market timing policy, and Prudential Retirement will take action, as directed by the investment provider, to enforce that provider’s rule or policy.

To obtain a copy of the complete Market Timing Policy, please contact Prudential at the number reflected in Part IV of this document.

Designated Investment Managers

A “designated investment manager” is a party designated by the plan to manage all or a portion of the assets held in or contributed to participant accounts. To determine whether your plan offers this service, please contact your plan sponsor.

Explanation of fees and expenses for general plan administrative services:

Fee Type	Fee Amount	Frequency
Express Mail Fee	$25.00	Per applicable transaction
Installment Payout Charge	$5.00	Per applicable transaction
Self Directed Brokerage Services Charge	$90.00	Annual

Plan administration costs may include recordkeeping, legal, accounting and other costs associated with maintaining the Plan. In some cases, these fees may be applied to participant accounts either equally across all accounts, or proportionally based on account balance. In the event fees are deducted from your account, the type and amount of the fee charged will be reflected on the quarterly statement following the deduction.

Voting Rights

If you invest in a mutual fund, it is your plan sponsor's right to vote for members of the fund company's board of directors and other matters of corporate policy, such as the issuance of senior securities, stock splits, and substantial changes in operations.

Directing Your Investments:

You may specify how your future contributions to the plan are directed or make changes to existing investments in your plan either online or by phone. The website address and phone number are provided in Part IV of this document.

You may direct your new contributions to any investment in the plan.

You may direct your new employer contributions to any investment in the plan.
